Auction Terms and Conditions

Welcome!

Upon registration, buyer agrees to bid and agree to the terms and conditions of this sale. A sale by auction is complete when the auctioneer so announces in the customary manner of "SOLD". Buyers are responsible for their purchases when auctioneer says, "SOLD". The final and winning bid at an auction is an oral contract and is legally binding. All items sold "AS IS WHERE IS" with all faults. No warranties of any kind. All sales are final. Neither the auctioneer nor the seller makes any warranties or representations of any kind or nature with respect to property or its value and in no event shall be responsible for the correctness of description, genuineness, attribution, provenance, authenticity, authorship, completeness, and condition of property or estimate of value. A bid on "Guaranteed Bid" constitutes the absolute final winning bid for that silent auction item.

The Lake Ridge Academy Auction will be conducted as a reserve auction of real or personal property under definition of § 4707.22 of Ohio RC, to which all of the following apply. § Ohio RC 4707.01 (F) Reserve Auction means an auction in which the seller or an agent of the seller reserves the right to establish a stated minimum bid, the right to reject or accept any or all bids, or to withdraw the real or personal property at any time prior to the completion of the auction by the auctioneer.

All purchase items or pledges MUST be paid in full on this day, Friday, December 4th, 2009 BEFORE the buyer leaves the premises with the items. Auctioneer is acting as agent only. All responsibilities and guarantees are between buyers and seller. Announcements or statements made by auctioneer on day of auction take precedence over printed matter. The auctioneer's decision is final. Winning silent auction items will only be collected upon full payment following the conclusion of the gala or benefit event.

You are responsible for your account number and for any checks written for payment. Payment terms are in CASH, CREDIT CARD OR GOOD CHECK ONLY with photo I.D. – auction day.

ENJOY AND THANKYOU FORYOUR GENEROSITY!
