

2BR One-Week Adventure in Homer, AK + $500 Cash

Immerse yourself in Alaska's wilderness in this rustic house near Homer, Alaska. Known as the Eco and Adventure tourism capital of Alaska, it is also the City of Peonies. Homer offers coffee shops, art galleries and other entertainment, and your vacation spot is situated near the Kachemak Bay State Wilderness Park on the Kenai Peninsula. Further off and accessible by boat or plane is the Katmai National Park where you can view brown bears from an airplane, charter a fishing boat in the Halibut fishing capital of the world, or explore glaciers, mountains and coves.

Featuring an open floor plan, the home offers two bedrooms and one bathroom. Up to four children may be accommodated on the living room couch and three cots. Kitchen conveniences and a washer and dryer are available. Restaurants are located within a thirty-minute drive, and golf is ten miles away.

Restrictions: Mutually agreeable dates between June 1 and September 15, 2021.

Generously donated by Scott Bagi and Cherie Crawford